This is an example of some text with variant readings recorded as 'A' footnotes. From here on, though, we shall have 'C'. For spice, let us mark a longer passage, but give a different lemma for it, so that we don't get a huge amount of text in a note. Finally, we shouldn't forget the paragraphed notes, which are so useful when there are a great number of short notes to be recorded.

This is a second paragraph, giving more examples of text with variant readings recorded as 'A' footnotes. From here on, though, we shall have 'B' notes in the text. For spice, let us mark a longer passage, but give a different lemma for it, so that we don't get a huge amount of text in a note. Finally, we shouldn't forget the column notes, which are so useful when there are many short notes to be recorded.
